

CPQ-90
CIERRE SUR
PERFIL N

This black and white photograph shows an archaeological excavation site. In the center, a pile of irregularly shaped stones and rubble is visible. To the left of this pile, a vertical scale marker with alternating black and white segments stands upright. A small, dark rectangular label with white text is placed on the ground near the base of the scale marker. The background consists of a dirt surface with some scattered debris.